

Quiz 5

Ten points.

1. The top of a ladder ten meters long is sliding down a wall at a rate of two meters per second. How fast is the distance from the bottom of the ladder to the wall increasing when the bottom of the ladder is six meters from the wall?