Q1) The 500 miligrams of a radioactive substance is found to decrease by 5% in 6 hours. If the rate of decay is proportional to the amount of the substance at time \( t \), write the differential equation for this case and find solution. How much of mass will be left after 18 hours?